MISSION

UMAR is a nonprofit on a mission to promote community inclusion, independence, and growth for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities through residential, vocational, and cultural enrichment opportunities.

VISION

UMAR will pioneer diverse and lifelong supports for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities throughout North Carolina, serving as the provider of choice for four key stakeholder groups: members and their families, NC DHHS, health plans, and employees.

ACCREDITATION

UMAR is CARF-accredited for the following services:

- community housing
- supported living
- community integration
- job development
- job supports
- job-site training

Celebrating

40 YEARS

In 1983, a group of parents and concerned clergy members from the United Methodist Church came together in Winston-Salem to form a task force to address the needs of “persons with handicapped needs.”

Recognizing that there were insufficient residential programs to help aging parents and foster the independence of young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, these pioneers forged partnerships, advocated, and secured funding to start UMAR. The first residential home in High Point was generously donated by Bill Ervin, and now bears his name.

From its humble beginnings, UMAR has grown to serve hundreds of individuals across Western North Carolina with 19 group homes and nine independent living apartments. UMAR’s impact expanded even further with three facilities offering arts-based day programs, community services, and job development programs.

As we look back on the last four decades, there is much for which to be grateful. Each generation of UMAR leadership has helped shape the organization we know today. Each generation of donors has helped empower the individuals UMAR serves on their journey of growth and independence.

To all our supporters, old and new, we offer our sincerest gratitude for being a part of our mission to ensure adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities have the opportunities they deserve to LIVE, WORK, and THRIVE!

Thank you
